

Hallowe'en

Hallowe'en / hæləʊ'i:n ə -ləʊ- / [uncountable]

the night of October 31st, which is now celebrated by children, who dress in costumes and go from house to house asking for sweets, especially in the US and Canada. In the past, people believed the souls of dead people appeared on Halloween.

jack-o'-lantern noun [countable]

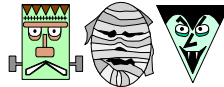

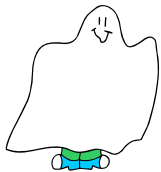

a pumpkin that has a face cut into it and a candle put inside to shine through the holes

My daughter wore a witch costume in the Halloween parade.

1 - go trick or treating

if children go trick or treating, they dress in costumes and go from house to house on Halloween saying 'trick or treat' in order to get sweets

2 - the words that children say when they go trick or treating, to say that they will play a trick on someone if they are not given a treat (=sweet)

kettle: American English a large pot, used for making soup (üst)

1 - a haunted building /house is believed to be visited regularly by the soul of a dead person

2 - haunted expression/look a very worried or frightened expression

turkey noun/ tɜ:ki, $ tɜ:rki /

1 - [countable] a bird that looks like a large chicken and is often eaten at Christmas and at Thanksgiving

2 - [uncountable] the meat from a turkey eaten as food (roast turkey)

3 - [countable] American English informal an unsuccessful film or play

4 - talk turkey – informal, especially American English to talk seriously about details, especially in business

