

Fill in the gaps with one suitably formed word!

- a) He might be difficult to work with, but his knowledge of marketing is _____.
- b) It was really _____ of him not to let you sleep at his place for at least one night.
- c) My feelings towards him are _____. In a nutshell, we have a love-hate relationship.
- d) He is an _____ student, who looks down on everybody including his professors.
- e) 'How come he is here?' ' They _____ sent him an invitation.'
- f) The final speech of the defense lawyer was quite _____, no wonder they've lost the case.
- g) Her secret affair with the boss was actually _____. Everybody knew about it.
- h) It looks _____ that we'll have to buy this series of encyclopedias for the school.
- i) It was quite _____ of Jim to travel abroad without finding work and accommodation.
- j) Now I know that sending him away was an _____ mistake. Nobody can do this job as efficiently as he could.
- k) Don't you feel that this job is _____ with your interest and abilities? I don't think you'll be able to cope with it in the long run.
- l) Every teacher was afraid to enter our classroom as we were considered to be the most _____ children in the school.

- a) Dispute
- b) Hospitality
- c) Define
- d) Reverence
- e) Comprehend
- f) Articulate
- g) Disguise
- h) Inevitability
- i) Prudence
- j) Remedies
- k) Commensurable
- l) Discipline

